

Meet George and Nadia

Today is George's first day at his new job at All Seasons Garden Centre. He is taking a break in the lunchroom when Nadia walks in. Here is their conversation:

Nadia: Hi there! You must be the new worker. Welcome! My name is Nadia. How's your first day going?

George: Hi Nadia! Nice to meet you. My name is George. Things are going well. It's a great day to be working outside.

Nadia: Yes, the weather's been nice lately. I hope the sunshine is here to stay.

George: I think it is. I hear the warm temperatures will continue into the weekend.

Nadia: Oh, that's such great news. It was a long winter, so I'm ready for spring!

George: Me too. Maybe I'll get the BBQ out this weekend.

Nadia: That sounds like a fun plan. I need to get back to work now, but it was great meeting you, George. See you around!

George: Thanks, Nadia!

Let's talk about it

It's normal to feel nervous on your first day of work. Nadia tried to help George feel more comfortable by including him in a conversation.

- How do you feel when you have to talk to people you don't know well?
- Can you think of situations where you've had to talk to someone new? What did you talk about?
- What are some conversation topics that can help you get to know a new person?
